PREPARE YOUR CHILD FOR KINDERGARTEN AND BEYOND

Day Early Learning at Howe will be Early Learning Indiana's newest high-quality early learning center, serving families who live or work on Indianapolis' east side. Located in the former Thomas Carr Howe High School - which will be the new Howe IB Middle School - part of Indianapolis Public School's Rebuilding Stronger plan. The center will have six brand new classrooms, an indoor gross motor area and two beautiful outdoor playgrounds. Classrooms are designed to provide a fun learning environment and outfitted with the newest developmentally-appropriate learning materials to help your child explore and learn in a safe environment.
